GRAYROBINSON

Alyssa Dickinson*

Licensing Specialist

alyssa.dickinson@gray-robinson.com
850.577.9090

Focus

- Alcohol Beverage

Alyssa has over a decade of experience working with the GrayRobinson Alcohol Law Team. She is based in the firm's Tallahassee office, where most state licenses are processed for approvals. Alyssa works closely with clients and local, state, and federal government agencies to obtain licenses on or before target dates set by clients. She assists clients in tracking the license applications she files until all licenses are approved and issued. She also has the skills and knowledge necessary to help clients maintain their licenses in good standing and current with licensing government agencies.

Alyssa has worked on single-location and multi-location licensing projects throughout the United States, resulting from mergers, acquisitions, and existing businesses expanding into new markets. Clients who have worked with Alyssa comment on her attention to detail, organization, license application and approval process subject matter knowledge, communication skills, government contacts, ability to meet target dates, timely responsiveness, and helpful attitude.

 Denotes non-attorney professional*

Areas of Emphasis

- Local, state and federal alcohol beverage licensing for retail, wholesale, import, manufacturing, brand and label registrations.
- Local, state and federal tobacco products and cigarette licensing for retail and wholesale.
- State and local food service licensing for retail.
- Local, state and federal professional licensing for a variety of professions required to be licensed.
- Local, state and federal licensing for a variety of businesses required to be licensed.