Savvy construction litigator representing contractors and subcontractors statewide. Equipped with extensive experience in preparing motions, mediations, and case strategies to effectively navigate complex disputes.

Michele Ebone focuses her litigation practice on construction defect claims, professional negligence, building code violations, and contract disputes across Florida state courts. She skillfully guides general contractors and subcontractors through all stages of litigation, including cases involving Florida Statute Chapter 558 claims.

Known for her meticulous attention to detail and commitment to her clients' success, Michele handles every aspect of litigation. Her practice includes drafting pleadings, overseeing discovery, conducting depositions, and facilitating mediation and settlement negotiations. She is highly proficient in preparing and arguing motions, including motions to dismiss and for summary judgment, and conducts thorough site inspections to assess claims and build effective case strategies.

Beyond construction litigation, Michele has significant experience defending personal injury claims. She consistently employs a focused, results-driven strategy, navigating cases from pre-litigation to trial with precision and dedication.
