Astutely handling real estate transactions for domestic and international clients. Leveraging courtroom insight and transactional skill to orchestrate complex matters with clarity, precision, and strategic foresight.

Renee Adwar represents clients in a broad range of real estate and business matters, with a focus on residential and commercial real estate transactions, title issues, and related disputes. She guides clients through all stages of real estate deals, from contract negotiation through closing, ensuring transactions are completed efficiently while proactively managing risk. Her experience includes handling both routine and complex real estate closings involving diverse property types and ownership structures. Renee regularly drafts and negotiates commercial leases on behalf of landlords and tenants, helping clients structure agreements that protect their long-term operational and financial interests. She is skilled at addressing key leasing issues, including use rights, maintenance obligations, default provisions, and risk allocation, providing practical guidance tailored to each client's business objectives.

Her practice also includes corporate and business law matters, where she assists clients from entity formation through ongoing operations. Renee prepares and negotiates operating agreements, shareholder agreements, and other foundational governance documents, ensuring that ownership rights, management authority, and financial arrangements are clearly defined. She also represents clients in the purchase and sale of businesses and business assets, guiding transactions from contract drafting and negotiations through due diligence to closing.

With a professional foundation that began in the courtroom, Renee's early trial experience shaped her strategic and detail-oriented approach, allowing her to anticipate potential issues and position clients to avoid or effectively resolve disputes when they arise.
