Appellate

Heightened stakes in litigation require a strategic approach from the very beginning. The GrayRobinson appellate team provides clients with seasoned appellate advocacy, covering virtually every civil, administrative, and criminal law area. While navigating appeals and original proceedings before state and federal appellate courts throughout the U.S., our appellate team brings powerful support and crucial insight to every stage of litigation. We frequently collaborate with trial lawyers – both from GrayRobinson and other law firms throughout Florida and the United States – to assist in preparing cases for trial, appearing at trial to advance arguments, and preserving the record for appeal. Protecting your position on appeal is critical, and our team is there to safeguard your interests every step of the way.

Our experienced team is led by Jack Reiter, who is board-certified in Appellate Practice by The Florida Bar and a former chair of The Florida Bar Appellate Court Rules Committee and Appellate Practice Section. Additional team members are board-certified by The Florida Bar in Appellate Practice and have worked as judicial clerks in both state and federal trial and appellate courts.
