

WILLIAM A. GRIMM
FLORIDA SUPREME COURT CERTIFIED CIRCUIT MEDIATOR

BACKGROUND RELEVANT TO MEDIATION:

- Practicing corporate and securities law in Florida for 34 years
- Of Counsel, GrayRobinson
- Professor of Practice in Entrepreneurship and Negotiation at Rollins College Crummer Graduate School of Business, teaching Negotiation, Entrepreneurial Finance, and Entrepreneurship
- MBA from University of Florida; Mechanical Engineering degree from Penn State; J.D. with honors from Stetson University
 - Editor-in-chief of Stetson Law Review
- Served on several Boards of Directors of publicly and privately held companies
 - Served on and advised audit committees
- Experience as Chief Financial Officer of a publicly held company
- Experience as a Vice President of Corporate Finance for an investment banking firm
- Member, National Association of Corporate Directors
- Active duty in the US Navy as the Supply Officer of the USS Strong, DD-758 in the Atlantic and Mediterranean Fleets

REPRESENTATIVE CORPORATE AND SECURITIES CLIENTS FOR WHOM HE HAS SERVED AS GENERAL COUNSEL:

- Sawtek Inc.
- Autonomous Technologies Corporation
- Philip Crosby Associates, Inc.
- Kinetics, Inc.
- Laser Photonics, Inc.
- Scientific Systems Services, Inc.

MEDIATION FOCUS:

- Shareholder disputes
- Violations of securities laws
- Breach of fiduciary duty
- Breach of non-competition agreements
- Merger and acquisition disputes
- Strategic relationship or joint venture disputes
- Financial statement and accounting disputes
- Breach of complex contracts
- Technology disputes – patent infringement, misappropriation of trade secrets
- Exclusive supply or sales agreement disputes
- Software/systems disputes
- Other business disputes

GRAYROBINSON FACILITIES:

- Downtown Orlando location
- 14 conference rooms
- Convenient, covered parking
- Embassy Suites hotel adjacent
- Numerous restaurants nearby
- 30 minutes from Orlando International Airport
- Desktop computer, printer and fax available to counsel for parties
- Video projectors available for all conference rooms
- Wireless internet access
- Coffee and soft drinks provided

USE OF TECHNOLOGY IN THE MEDIATION PROCESS:

Mr. Grimm will use

- visual aids
- video projection
- MindMap software
- flip charts
- whiteboards
- other tools to organize and track the confidential discussions