

Class of 2001

You can now view your classmates' news and accomplishments online! Click your graduation year below to see class notes, with the most recent entries appearing first. You may also submit a class note (/alumni/submit-class-note) online.

Kristie L. Hatcher-Bolin (<http://www.gray-robinson.com/attorneys-professionals/kristie-hatcher-bolin>) has achieved board certification by The Florida Bar's Board of Legal Specialization and Education in the area of appellate practice. She is a shareholder at GrayRobinson, P.A. in Lakeland, where she focuses her practice on appellate, general civil and commercial litigation, as well as employment law. Posted 9.3.19

Thomas N. Palermo was appointed to the Thirteenth Judicial Circuit Court by Florida Governor Ron DeSantis. Palermo previously served as an assistant United States attorney at the U.S. Attorney's Office in Tampa. Posted 4.11.19

Thomas N. Palermo is a federal prosecutor in the Middle District of Florida, Tampa Division. He also serves as the district's opioid coordinator and, in that role, had the opportunity to prepare an article on the opioid crisis from the perspective of a federal prosecutor. The article, "The Opioid Crisis," was published in the Winter 2019 issue of the American Bar Association's Criminal Justice magazine. Posted 2.11.19

Michael A. Sjuggerud (<https://www.hmtlaw.com/About/Michael-Sjuggerud.shtml>) is now board certified in Real Estate Law from The Florida Bar. He practices real estate law, business law, and local and state government law at Cantwell & Goldman PA in Cocoa. Posted 12.4.18

Autumn Beck Blackledge (<https://www.autumnbeck.com/about/>) authored the book, Skinny Ninnie's Kitchen: Recipes and Humour from Four Generations of Southern Mouths. She is the founding partner of the family law firm, Autumn Beck Blackledge, PLLC, in Pensacola. Posted 8.29.18

Elmer C. Ignacio (<http://www.sniffenlaw.com/elmer-c-ignacio/>) has joined Sniffen & Spellman, P.A. as an associate in Tallahassee. He practices in the areas of labor and employment, state and local government, and civil rights litigation. Posted 5.18.18

Brittany Long (<http://www.radeylaw.com/professionals/brittany-long/>) is a shareholder at Radey Law Firm in Tallahassee. She practices in the area of Florida administrative law and appellate advocacy, with an emphasis on cases involving public procurement rule challenges, public records and the Sunshine Law. Long is board certified in State & Federal Government and Administrative Practice. Posted 12.14.17

James M. Marshall (<https://gunster.com/staff/attorneys/j-michael-marshall/>) has joined Gunster's Fort Lauderdale office as a shareholder. He practices environmental and land use law. Posted 10.17.17

Lawrence J. Hodz (<http://www.corteshodzlaw.com/ourattorneys.html>) serves on the Executive Council of The Stann Givens Family Law American Inn of Court. He is a board member of R U Safe, Inc. and recently participated in a CLE for the organization Mock Domestic Violence Injunction Return Hearing: How to Present, Defend and Win. Hodz has been recognized as a 2017 Florida Super Lawyers Rising Star. He practices marital and family law at Cortes Hodz Family Law and Mediation, P.A. in Tampa with his wife, Vivian C. Hodz ('02). Posted 10.3.17

Anthony R. Reeves was appointed to serve as an administrative law judge with the United States Social Security Administration in April. Prior to his appointment, he ran his own practice for 10 years. Posted 9.27.17

Sarah S. Butters (<http://www.ausley.com/attorney-profile/sarah-s-butters>) is now a shareholder at Ausley McMullen in Tallahassee. Her areas of practice are trusts and estates, wills and probate, and taxation. Posted 4.6.17

Kristy K. Banks served in the Electoral College for the 2016 presidential election. She practices at Kristy Branch Banks, P.A in Apalachicola. Posted 3.20.17

Kristie L. Hatcher-Bolin (<http://www.gray-robinson.com/attorneys-professionals/kristie-hatcher-bolin>) is a recipient of The Florida Bar President's Pro Bono Service Award. She is a shareholder at GrayRobinson, P.A. in Lakeland, pro bono attorney ad litem and volunteer advocate for the children in the 10th Judicial Circuit Guardian ad Litem program. Posted 2.22.17