

BUSINESS OBSERVER

THURSDAY, AUG. 29, 2019 32 min ago

Area attorney joins board of national sports group's foundation

SHARE

COMMENTS

0

The United States Tennis Association taps GrayRobinson partner Elizabeth DeConti for the role.

by: Business Observer | Staff

---

TAMPA — GrayRobinson P.A. shareholder Elizabeth DeConti has been elected to the United States Tennis Association Florida Foundation board of directors.

According to a press release, DeConti, by joining the board, will provide governance to support and drive the vision of the association's Florida Section Foundation.

DeConti's law practice, the release states, focuses on alcohol beverage and food regulation. She handles litigation, compliance and promotions matters related to the marketing, sale and consumption of alcohol and other regulated food and beverage products. Her clients include major alcohol suppliers, wholesalers, retailers, marketing companies and other members of the hospitality industry.

The USTA Florida Foundation, the release states, focuses on changing lives through tennis by providing financial support to organizations that help people of all ages and abilities improve their health and quality of life through the sport.

---