Published August 25, 2009

Washington, DC (Aug. 25, 2009) – Coral Gables, Fla., attorney Brian H. Bieber was elected to the Board of Directors of the National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers (NACDL) at the Association’s 51st Annual Meeting in Boston, Mass., this month. He is a member of the Florida Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers and has previously served on NACDL’s Membership Committee. Bieber is also NACDL’s State Membership Chair for the State of Florida.

Licensed to practice law in New York, Florida and the District of Columbia, Bieber is also admitted to practice before the United States Supreme Court, the Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Eighth, Ninth, and Eleventh Circuit Courts of Appeal. In recent years, Bieber has been both a finalist and a recipient of Daily Business Review’s “Most Effective South Florida Lawyer Award.” Over the years, he has been featured in the New York Times, Wall Street Journal, National Law Journal Miami Herald, South Florida Sun-Sentinel, Palm Beach Post, Ocala Star Banner, and other daily newspapers across the country. In addition, Bieber has appeared on CNN, Good Morning America, Telemundo, 48 Hours, Fox News Channel and other news outlets, both in the U.S. and abroad.

Bieber, a named partner at the firm of Hirschhorn & Bieber, P.A., from 2000 to present, began practicing law at Hirschhorn, P.A. from 1994-99. His practice focuses on criminal and civil white collar defense litigation (both high profile and extremely confidential) for individuals as well as major multi-million dollar businesses, in Federal and State Courts at the trial and appellate levels. His practice concentrates on the defense of Banking, Bankruptcy, Computer, Health Care, Insurance, Mail, Money Laundering, Mortgage, Pharmaceutical, Real Estate, RICO, Tax, Wire and other types of Fraud, and Complex Litigation (both Criminal and Civil). And his firm also represents businesses, corporate executives, prominent clients, ordinary citizens and others accused of alleged (violent and non-violent) criminal conduct, including before grand jury investigations and in regulatory matters. Bieber has successfully represented, by way of dismissals before trial, and acquittals by juries, numerous clients charged with serious criminal activity facing lengthy prison sentences if convicted.

Bieber received his B.S. in Marketing from Rutgers University School of Business in 1991 and his J.D. from the University of Miami School of Law in 1994.
