Experienced trial attorney with a history of working in the financial services industry. Known for her skilled preparation and attendance of contested and uncontested non-jury trials, drafting of legal documents, and negotiations.

Shakiva Brown is a seasoned litigation attorney with over a decade of success defending financial institutions, insurers, and corporations in high-stakes disputes across Florida. She guides matters from inception through trial and appeal, implementing strategies that resolve complex cases efficiently and position clients for favorable outcomes. Her practice spans first-party property insurance defense, foreclosure litigation, contract disputes, and appellate advocacy, with regular appearances in state and appellate courts for jury trials, bench trials, hearings, mediations, arbitrations, and appeals.

Before joining GrayRobinson, Shakiva sharpened her skills at national and regional law firms, managing high-volume litigation portfolios and handling mortgage servicing disputes and consumer finance cases. This background prepared her to balance efficiency with meticulous advocacy, delivering cost-effective representation while protecting her clients' business interests.
